MONTHLY MEETING MINUTES
MAY 6, 2015

President Kathy Bruch started off the festivities at the Sandia Resort and Casino at 11:00 a.m. by stating "Today we want to celebrate and honor members as well as the work we do to make Placitas and the surrounding communities a better place to live. Along with the many members who helped put on this special celebration, I want to say Thank You for attending."

Diane Herrera Shepard then took over as the Mistress of Ceremonies.

Pat Quick asked us to raise our glasses for a champagne toast.

After dessert Karen Cox and Rich Reif were thanked for the delicious cupcakes they made.

The program started at around noon with many members dancing their way through the Pharrell Williams' song "Happy." Ellen McMahon was then introduced and spoke of the club's benevolent work and contributions leading into a "Making a Difference" video.

The officers were then introduced and the program continued by honoring past presidents with a video. Another video with accompanying interview conducted by Geri Verble with 43 year member Ruth Ives, gave all of us assembled an idea of what the club was like at its beginning.

Ruth, along with two past presidents, Bobbie West and Mary duLin, all of whom were in attendance, were named as Honorary members of Jardineros de Placitas.

President Bruch acknowledged and thanked the hardworking and very capable 50th Anniversary Event Committee.

Then many Happy Dollars were donated along with wild tales of new law firms, mountain climbing adventures, and the good news of a long awaited grandchild and the results of a year long endurance test to wellness.

Rozanne and Todd Hakala received many thanks and kudos for their terrific efforts in capturing the heart of the Jardineros de Placitas organization.

The presentation of quilts was a spectacular display of creativity and ingenuity.

There were 32 quilts for Haven House. Terrific effort ladies!

Community Services Co-Chair Linda Suydam also mentioned a new agenda at the Recycling Center was in the works. They are attempting a team approach of three people each Saturday on a rotating basis. Any members looking for a volunteer opportunity please consider them.

Constitution and Bylaws would like to implement an improvement in Parliamentary procedures.

Rozanne Hakala was the photographer today for the website.

Jennise Phillips Yearbook Chair stated she has purchased a new efficient program for the new Yearbook. The new program will alphabetize members' names by first name.

Karen Cox Chair of Noche Encantada stated we are set at Sandia Resort for the Holiday Party and she is now scoping out bands for the entertainment.
